The naming right will last the life of the building, except in the instance when an individual who has given their name falls into scandal and by virtue of association brings the St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Newman Community into scandal as well. In those instances, the name will be removed after approval is given by the Fundraising Board. The name will be printed on a plaque and placed either on or next to the area purchased. All names must first be approved by the Fundraising Board.

All donors who donate at least $425 will be recognized on the donor wall in the new building. Anyone who donated less than $425 will have their name written in a book on display in the new building.

If you have any questions about the naming rights or about donating to the capital campaign, please call David Zeamer, Development Director, at 702-736-0887 or email him at zeamer@unlvnewman.com.
